

Memorias de Sherlock Holmes (Spanish Edition)

Las memorias de Sherlock Holmes es una coleccion de historias de Sherlock Holmes, originariamente publicado en 1894, por Arthur Conan Doyle. En un momento de autentica inspiracion, basandose en el modelo de Quijote y Sancho que tantos novelistas han utilizado, el autor creo al doctor Watson, un medico leal pero intelectualmente torpe que acompaña a Sherlock y escribe sus aventuras. En julio de 1891 empezo a publicar en la revista Strand Magazine las andanzas de su personaje, basado parcialmente en uno de sus profesores de la universidad, que abogaba por seguir estrictos razonamientos deductivos en todos los ordenes de la vida.
