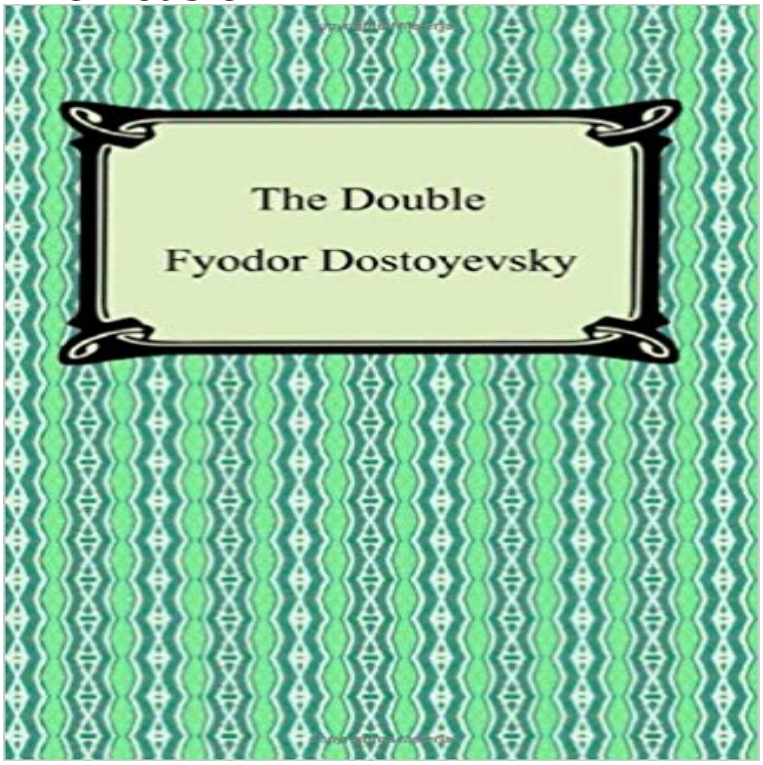
The Double



First published in 1846, Fyodor Dostoyevskys novella The Double is a classic doppelganger and the second major work published by the author. It is the story of Yakov Petrovich Golyadkin, a government clerk who believes that a fellow clerk has taken over his identity and is determined to bring about his ruin. Considered the most Gogolesque of Dostoyevskys works, the novella brilliantly depicts Golyadkins descent into madness in a way that is hauntingly poetic. The Double illustrates Dostoyevskys uncanny ability at capturing the complexity of human emotion especially the darker side of the human psyche.
