

The Secret Agent

Mr Verloc leads a seemingly quiet - if not entirely respectable - life as proprietor of a small shop, selling discreetly-packaged materials of prurient interest to certain types of gentleman. But he cares little for the business, for he guards a secret - he is a spy, providing reports to a foreign Embassy. When he is charged with executing a dynamite outrage on behalf of his paymasters, he engages in a plot to blow up the Greenwich Observatory. But the bomb will have explosive consequences beyond the worst Mr Verloc could ever have imagined...
